The San Francisco Fall Antiques Show

The 2015 San Francisco Fall Antiques Show (SFAS) will arrive like clockwork on Thursday, October 22, and run through Sunday, October 25, at Fort Mason's Festival Pavilion with the theme "Time After Time: Bringing the Past Present." This year's focus speaks to the lasting quality of beautiful pieces, the time that goes into creating a work of art, and the vast time span the objects in the show encompass.

A curated Loan Exhibition at SFAS will showcase the evolution, design, and beauty of timepieces from across time. "For anyone interested in the Decorative Arts, buying, collecting, or simply learning about art and antiques, the San Francisco Fall Antiques Show is not to be missed," relates this year's Show Chair Suzanne Tucker. "After 34 years, the Fall Antiques Show remains a Bay Area 'must attend event' with four vibrant days filled with terrific dealers, fascinating lectures, and gobs of eye candy!!"

The Show will take place at Fort Mason Center Festival Pavilion and will feature 60 dealers from around the world, offering for sale an extraordinary range of fine and decorative arts representing all styles and periods, including American, English, Continental, and Asian furniture, as well as paintings, prints, photographs, books, gold, silver and other precious metals, plus jewelry, rugs, textiles, and ceramics.

The proceeds of SFAS benefit Enterprise for High School Students, the San Francisco nonprofit that prepares and empowers a diverse group of Bay Area youth to pursue life after school with passion and purpose.
