

Fall Antiques Show Pre-Party At Graff

PHOTOS BY SUSANA BATES/ DREW ALTIZER PHOTOGRAPHY

Whether or not the adjective POSH really comes from the first letters of the phrase "port out, starboard home," referring to the most desirable accommodations on a steamship voyage from England to India and back, GRAFF's launch party for the nautical-themed SF Fall Antiques Show (SFFAS) was undoubtedly POSH! In keeping with the theme, blue was the color of the night, with the stunning sapphires on display and worn by models dressed by Karen Caldwell. Don't miss the nautical art, antiques, and the America's Cup, on view at SFFAS Preview Party on October 24, proudly sponsored by Nob Hill Gazette. More photos online at www.nobhillgazette.com.
